

Alexis Vasquez Meissner

Head of HSBC Securities Services America's

Alexis Vasquez Meissner is a Managing Director & the Head of HSBC Securities Services (HSS) Americas, where she is responsible for the Region's Subcustody and Corporate Trust & Loan Agency businesses. She is a member of the Global HSS Management Committee and the Americas Global Banking and Markets Management & Risk Committees. She is also a Principal of HSBC Securities (USA) Inc.

Ms Vasquez Meissner joined HSBC from BNY Mellon, where she held a variety of roles in Issuer Services and Global Client Management over 12 years.

Her most recent role at BNY Mellon was as Client Executive with the Platinum Client Group, a small team of executives responsible for developing global strategic relationships with core clients of the firm across all product lines.

Prior to joining BNY Mellon, Alexis spent two years as an IR consultant with Thomson Financial (now Thomson Reuters).

Alexis has a BA from Pacific Lutheran University (Tacoma, Washington) in Economics and Spanish Literature, and an MA from Tulane's Roger Thayer Stone's Center for Latin American Studies (New Orleans, Louisiana), where she concentrated in Economic Development and Sociology. Alexis is a Fulbright fellow, and spent two years in Concepcion and Santiago, Chile studying economic development and natural resource management. She speaks Spanish and conversational Portuguese.